Magistrate Judge
United States District Court
District of Minnesota

Dear Judge Leung:

Reference: Case 0:21-cv-02364-JRT-TNL

Dear Judge Leung:

After a long illness which required a visit to Urgent Care, I am finally logging in to my PACER account today and notice all updates and activities.

I wanted to bring to your attention my illness that has prevented me from addressing any case proceedings. Please note that while I was still suffering from the effects of COVID in November, I became ill with a bout of Influenza a few days before Thanksgiving which prevented me from addressing any and all-important issues affecting me personally or legally only to find myself becoming sick again on Christmas Day which necessitated a trip to Urgent Care. If required by court, I would be happy to provide all medical records/evidence.

Please allow me a few days to read everything and respond to anything that I am required to. Even though my sickness has not allowed me to address anything recently, I do feel that I have reached a level of physical health to start addressing these important legal proceedings. My apologies for not bringing my most recent health issues to your attention earlier!

Respectfully,

M. Saeed Sultana

P.S. I am still awaiting Defendant's attorneys to forward me all the documents I requested. Their secretary did send some password-protected link to some website which expired after some time and I am yet to get my hands on those documents. I did contact them regarding this, but they never replied.
